

I am a supporter of satellite radio. I hope the decision makers at the FCC do not allow the big money lobbyists of the large network broadcasters to further limit consumer choice of local programming, weather, news, etc. Perhaps instead of influencing legislation, they should do a better job of providing quality broadcasting, and compete the old fashion way. Pete Pappas